MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT

On April 27, 2005, the Plaintiff and the Defendant participated in Court-sponsored mediation. During this mediation, the parties reached an agreement to settle. As part of that agreement, the Defendant agreed to pay the Plaintiff $7,500 in exchange for a full and final release of any and all claims associated with the accident that occurred in Manhattan New York in 2003 (the subject matter of this case). (Aff. of David G. Richardson, attached as Exhibit 1). The Plaintiff, attorney for the Plaintiff and attorney for the Defendant all signed the agreement at the mediation. (Attached as Exhibit 2).

By May 10, 2005, counsel for the Defendant mailed a draft for $7,500 and a final release to counsel for the Plaintiff with instructions not to negotiate the draft until the release was signed and returned (Attached as Exhibits 3, 4 and 5). To this date, the Defendant has not received a signed copy of this release. (Aff. of David G. Richardson Exh. 1)

The Defendant filed a motion to enforce the settlement agreement on June 23. An evidentiary hearing was held in this Court on September 1 where this Court granted the motion and issued an Order to Enforce the Settlement. (Attached as Exhibit 6). The Plaintiff however remains unwilling to perform his end of the bargain for reasons unrelated to this lawsuit.

The Defendant wishes to close this matter and perform her legal obligations but the Plaintiff will not accept the settlement draft. The Defendant therefore requests an Order to deposit the money with the Clerk of Courts. The Plaintiff may then petition for the release of the money once he decides to accept it. Plaintiff's counsel may also apply for payment of the portion of the money that he has rightfully earned in this matter.

THEREFORE, the Defendant respectfully requests that this Court Grant its Motion for an Order to Deposit the Settlement proceeds with the Clerk of Courts.

Respectfully submitted,

MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT

By this Court's Scheduling Order entered June 1, 2004, a discovery cutoff was set of March 15, 2005, and trial set for April 25, 2005.

The Plaintiff has been deposed and several medical records have been gathered by previous defense counsel. This counsel's office was substituted at the request of the Defendant's liability carrier on October 5, 2004.

By agreement of the parties, the Plaintiff was scheduled for an examination with Malcolm Meyn, M.D. on January 26, 2005 at 10:30 a.m. as confirmed in the attached letter of December 17, 2004.

On January 26, 2005 this counsel's office was notified that the Plaintiff had failed to appear for his examination. This counsel contacted Plaintiff's counsel on that date and was advised that Plaintiff's counsel had received a voicemail message from his client that day that he was unable to appear for the appointment and that he would be out of town until mid-March 2005. This counsel called Plaintiff's counsel again on February 1, 2005 and was advised that Plaintiff's counsel still had not heard back from his client despite repeated phone messages.

As a courtesy and a good faith effort to coordinate with the Plaintiff's reported schedule, the defense has rescheduled an examination for March 22, 2005 at 10:30 a.m. A Notice is being filed concurrently with this motion.

Per this Court's order, the discovery cutoff is set for March 15, 2005. Given the circumstances of this case and failure of the Plaintiff to appear for the January 26, 2005 examination, the defense requests an appropriate extension of discovery to accommodate the examination currently scheduled.

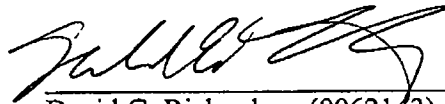

While the Defendant is willing to show good faith and flexibility in scheduling the IME around the Plaintiff's reported schedule, such rescheduling of the examination will prejudice this

Defendant in that there will be insufficient time to adequately prepare for trial on April 25, 2005

Hence, this Defendant moves the Court to vacate the current trial date and requests a scheduling conference to select a new one.

This Defendant requests an Order consistent with the above.
